That Good Feeling

That Good Feeling
by James McCaleb

I have never been able to feel very holy; in fact, my awareness of the flesh has been quite definite. True, one comes at times under the spell of emotionalism; but emotions are variable, and change. There must be more to holiness than a mere feeling. Feelings can be misleading.

In spite of the fact that it is not possible to feel one's self into holiness, there are many emotionalists who are constantly running to and fro upon the earth exhorting the fearful to "have faith" and to "have a vital feeling." I am not aware that experience indicates any great amount of lasting peace flowing from this kind of loose arrangement. For most of us the barometer of our feelings will not always point upward.

We may thank God fervently that we can know surely the path of holiness. Our Father has told us how we may be set apart for Him, and how we may gain "the peace of God, which passes all understanding" (Phil 4:6). God's word is the truth. The Bible, the book that contains God's word, tells us that when we are buried with Christ by immersion (Rom 6:4), we are raised with Christ from the dead as a new life (Rom 6:4). We are a new creature – a vital reality. We have touched the Lord and power has flowed out from HIS to us. All of this is accomplished by faith – the faith that comes from accepting God's word (Rom 10:17).

We now have a sure knowledge that is activated by faith. It is not primarily a matter of "vital feeling." That good feeling is a natural result of our faith – a faith that has made contact with the Lord.

"YES"....Youth Empowered Servants

We have a "YES"....Youth Empowered Servants for our youth in 2019 and beyond that attend Beltway to assist our Homebound members and strengthen our youth's foundation at Beltway. This will include a youth empowerment forum with our youth coordinators. The Program will take place twice a month on the respective Saturdays. We are asking parents and youth (ages 8 years old to 18 years old) to sign-up and volunteer your time to this program. This program is to build our youth's faith in the Lord. If you have questions or concerns, please contact Bro. Markus. Thank you!
