Serving the Lord?
by James McCaleb

National convention years bring forth a great many speeches. Some are better than others in that they contain hidden gems of truth. In one particular speech, reference was made to a principle stated by Abraham Lincoln about 155+ years ago. During the Civil War a man is reported as asking Mr. Lincoln whether he thought God was on their side. The story goes that the president answered that the real concern should be whether they were on God's side.

And thereby hangs a lesson. We become dedicated to a certain course of action, and pursue it diligently and with fervor. In the heat of battle, when the emotions are high and our heart-throbs beat close to the surface, conscience raises its insistent voice. Are we sure that God approves of that which we are doing? Can it be that we have chosen a way that leads only to the frustration of wasted effort? Are we on God's side so that He, in turn, can be on ours? Do we have God's point of view, or do we seek presumptuously to bend His will to our own?

We need to check and recheck the framework of our lives. The bright and clear areas that are well within God's kingdom can be readily discerned. The shadowy fringes of doubt should be shunned. We may well follow the keynote speech of another era when Joshua said: "Choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were beyond the river, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord" (Joshua 24:15).

Nothing Shall Separate Us From the Love of God

Young Men Living Christian Lives

Titus 2:6-8

Introduction

“6 Young men likewise exhort to be sober minded. 7 In all things shewing thysself a pattern of good works: in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity, 8 Sound speech, that cannot be condemned; that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you.”

Sermon

I. To Be Sober Minded – Tit 2:6

II. Shewing Thyself A Pattern of Good Works – Tit 2:7

III. Sound Speech That Cannot Be Condemned – Tit 2:8

Conclusion

1. Sober minded...
2. A pattern of good works...
3. Sound speech...

“YES”....Youth Empowered Servants

We have a “YES”....Youth Empowered Servants for our youth in 2019 and beyond that attend Beltway to assist our Homebound members and strengthen our youth's foundation at Beltway. This will include a youth empowerment forum with our youth coordinators. The Program will take place twice a month on the respective Saturdays. We are asking parents and youth (ages 8 years old to 18 years old) to sign-up and volunteer your time to this program. This program is to build our youth's faith in the Lord. If you have questions or concerns, please contact Bro. Markus. Thank you!
