"BUILDING UP A SPIRITUAL HOUSE"
"CHOSEN PRECIOUS"
I PETER 2:5

I Know Whom I Have Believed

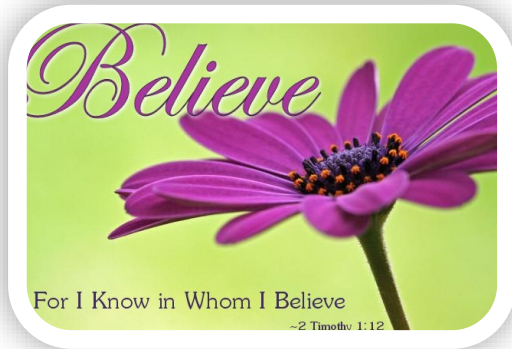

by James McCaleb

“Whether there is anything to it, you’ll never know.”

We were discussing the matters that are ever uppermost on a man’s heart: life, death, and the hereafter. My companion was skeptical. He had been probing the beliefs of his friends and found no satisfaction. There was too much opinion expressed, and he felt that his opinion was as good as theirs. We quickly came back to the inevitable starting point. Is the Book true? Is Jesus actually the Christ? It was then that he said, “You’ll never know.”

This statement I could not accept, and we probed the matter further. This instant that we pass over the Great Divide we shall know from experience. Even now we can know assuredly by faith. All of history shouts its confirmation of the Book divine. What a shock it will be to the millions of people who will face eternity with the bitter realization that they have wasted irrevocably the few precious years allotted to them to live. What price cynicism and indifference!

“You’ll never know.” Thank God that I can know now. The witnesses and the testimony force me to look up with a knowledge that cannot be denied. Thank God that I can know “that neither death nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.”

Building Up A Spiritual House

“The I’s of Paul”

Acts 27:1-13

Introduction

- A. Has there ever been a time when you know the certainty of an outcome, but those that you told did not believe you?
- B. This very thing happened one day on a ship that was sailing to Rome, and the apostle Paul knew the certainty of the outcome, but there were those who did not believe – Acts 27:10-11.
- C. When we know the certainty of an outcome and it comes to pass, we sometimes will express our discontented with their unbelief by saying I told you so. Rather than being discontented with those who did not believe beforehand the certainty of being shipwrecked at that island of Malti, Paul’s expression of faith was I believe God.
- D. I believe God and similar expressions of faith that begin with I is what I want to share with you all today, for they were the basis of Paul’s life and can be the basis of our lives today as well!

Sermon

I. I Believe God – Acts 27:15

II. I Know Whom I Have Believed – II Tim 1:12

III. I Trust Also Are Made Manifest In Your Consciences – II Cor 5:11

Conclusion

- 1. I believe...
- 2. I know...
- 3. I trust...
