

Roxy Hall is a passionate woman of God who has been a faithful member of the body of Christ since the age of twelve. She has been married to her husband Sam for 29 years. Together they have two young adult children, Lauren and Patrick. Roxy's family is truly her heart and motivation.

Roxy has been motivating women across the country into action for over twenty years. She infuses high-energy, real-world experiences, and impacting communication skills to create a perfect style to reach and lead women toward excellence. She uses her testimony to show women that with faith, diligence, hard work, and tenacity they can accomplish their personal, professional, and spiritual goals.

Her true mission in life is to help women identify their unique God given talents and abilities; then use that knowledge gained to positively impact their families, their professions, and their spirituality. Through her non-profit, SHEnergy, Roxy helps women understand that if they work together as women and build powerful mutually beneficial alliances with like-minded women of Excellence, they can help one another take their businesses, their careers, and their lives to a higher level.

Roxy has also launched a women's ministry, The SHEnergized SisStarhood. Each Sunday morning women from across the country come together and are energized, educated, emotionally engaged and empowered to live better lives in Him.

Roxy worked in educational leadership for over 20 years. In 2012 she started a consulting firm, Vanguard Solutions Consulting. Currently, VSC provides strategic marketing, project management, event planning and training and development services to government agencies, school districts, non-profits and companies across the nation. In 2016, Roxy partnered with a Christian sister and the company has grown. As a partnership, they are truly able to live out the mission of SHEnergy. Roxy attributes her success in business to the Grace & Mercy of God!

Because of her desire to advance the Kingdom of God, Roxy launched a division of her company specifically designed to assist Church of Christ congregations across the country in advertising, marketing and event planning.

Roxy truly has a heart for ministering to others and a desire to live her life on Purpose for His Purpose.
