The Messenger

COME, LORD JESUS!

Revelations 22:18-20

(18) For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book:

(19) And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book.

(20) He which testifieth these things saith, Surely I come quickly. Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus.

"BUILDING UP A SPIRITUAL HOUSE"
"CHOSEN PRECIOUS"
I PETER 2:5

You Never Know

You Never Know
by James McCaleb

He was a kindly old gentleman almost eighty years of age. I was accustomed to seeing him quite frequently around the premises where I was living. Often he ate at the same table. Then he went to the hospital. He never came back. One morning the girls in the dining room told me had died. One of them exclaimed: "You never know!"

The same morning two men came into the dining room and sat immediately back of me. As usual, they were discussing people whom they know. One of their business acquaintances was mentioned in hushed and solemn tones. His death had been sudden. One of the men said to the other: "You never know!"

Hearing that expression twice in the same morning caused me to stop to think. Truly, one never knows when he will come to the end of his period of grace. For some reason we expect to live on indefinitely. Tomorrow will be soon enough to start getting right with God. But tomorrow never comes. And then someone says about us: "You never know!"

I believe that the greatest frustrations in life are the result of our trying to live under the shadow of impending judgment without having that assurance that only faith in Jesus Christ can give. Try as we may to avoid the issue, we know that every soul must give an accounting to the God of from whence is sprang. To live in abject fear before the presence of God is miserable indeed. How simple it is to obtain the perfect family relationship with God through being born again of water and the Spirit; not of water alone, or of the Spirit alone, but of water and the Spirit.

"Blessed assurance, Jesus is mine!"

“Come, Lord Jesus”
Revelation 22:18-20

Introduction

- A. This year has been a trying time for so many people around the world, including many of this nation.
- B. Millions have been directly and indirectly affected by the Covid-19 virus throughout this country.
- C. Political jockeying is being arrogantly flaunted in our faces by an incumbent president daily.
- D. Thousands continue to be abused and victimized by police brutality nationally.
- E. It can be said that the result of all of these things is “fatigue,” i.e., exhaustion, stress, being tired!
- F. If we are tired of the things going on today in our nation, let’s consider John’s response when he prayed to the Lord, “Even so, come, Lord Jesus.”
- G. If you are fatigued, tired of the sin going on in this world pray “Come, Lord Jesus” for he will...

Sermon
