Lamentations 3:43-54 King James Version (KJV)

43 Thou hast covered with anger, and persecuted us: thou hast slain, thou hast not pitied.
44 Thou hast covered thyself with a cloud, that our prayer should not pass through.
45 Thou hast made us as the offscouring and refuse in the midst of the people.
46 All our enemies have opened their mouths against us.
47 Fear and a snare is come upon us, desolation and destruction.
48 Mine eye runneth down with rivers of water for the destruction of the daughter of my people.
49 Mine eye trickleth down, and ceaseth not, without any intermission.
50 Till the LORD look down, and behold from heaven.
51 Mine eye affecteth mine heart because of all the daughters of my city.
52 Mine enemies chased me sore, like a bird, without cause.
53 They have cut off my life in the dungeon, and cast a stone upon me.
54 Waters flowed over mine head; then I said, I am cut off.

Pray For Jimmy!
By Robert F. Turner

Pray for Jimmy Ledbetter! He is a young man of sixteen summers, Senior in Smith County Consolidated High School somewhere in Georgia, Arkansas or Oklahoma. He is going to preach his first sermon this coming Sunday.

Jimmy is a better-than-average student, slight of build, with a sensitive nature and a love for people. His parents are members of the Center Grove church, where Jimmy was baptized two years ago, and where he has been worshiping and taking part in a Training For Service class. He has the idealism of youth, scotched with honest emotions. His dress and, speech are on the mod side, but this is style in a moderately affluent home rather than a sign of rebellion. For Jimmy is a believer!

info@beltwaycoc.org

He believes in his parents, in his country, and in his God — although he fails to realize it is in this order. He trusts his peers, and almost idolizes the preacher. To the extent of his youthful understanding he truly believes the world is filled with people just waiting to be told how to live for Jesus, and go home to heaven. And tomorrow he will believe his own voice, and the promises he makes in the name of Christ.

Pray for Jimmy Ledbetter! For he faces empty praise — or silence from those who should encourage him. If he pursues his course he faces pressure to adjust to a professional status. His friends will tell him how to make the most (money) of his talents. His favorite preacher will prove to be something less than the apostle Paul. He faces the cynic who scorns idealism, thinking every good del has a selfish motive. And General Unconcern will lead the opposition.

Pray for Jimmy, for he soon must face himself! As he forms and speaks his own thoughts he will differ with others, and with his own past. He will be surprised, perplexed, proud, and angered by those differences; and he will have to decide what to do about it. Pray for Jimmy Ledbetter, for his world of black and white is about to be shattered by grays. His faith is about to be torn and tested, and its center will swing wildly from teacher to God, to self, to light, to darkness. Pray for Jimmy Ledbetter!

For a few Jimmy's will settle their Faith upon God. A few will accept the divine standard as their ideal, and will convince others to reach for it. A few will believe they can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth, and on these Jimmy's hang the future of the church, and the world.

The Type of Prayers That Pass Through The Clouds

Lamentations 3:43-54

Introduction

- A. All who pray to God desire that their prayers be heard in heaven, for many have petitioned God, “have respect unto the prayer of thy servant” and “hear the prayer of thy servant.”
- B. As stated on last Sunday, we are blessed by God according to the Bible to know with certainty the types of prayers that have been answered by God in times past; those concerning his house, those concern our health, and those concerning the gospel!
- C. But what about our prayers today? Does God have “respect”, will he “hear the prayer of his servants” today?
- D. All prayers are not answered by God in heaven. But, the purpose of this lesson is to share with you, “The Types of Prayers That Pass Through The Clouds.”

Sermon

I. Those Directed Toward God

II. Those That Are Pure Before God

III. Those Which God Delights In

Conclusion

- 1. God answers prayers directed toward HIM!
- 2. Prayers that are pure before God are answered!
- 3. God delights in our continual prayers!

Healthcare Information

Did You Know According to the American Red Cross, winter is “one of the most difficult times of year to collect enough blood products to meet patient needs.” That’s because of, among other things, busy holiday schedules and bad weather often resulting in canceled blood drives. Furthermore, seasonal illnesses such as the flu force potential donors to forgo their blood donations. That’s just one of the reasons that National Blood Donor Month, which has taken place each January since 1970, is such an important observance. Donating blood saves many lives and improves health for many people. According to the World Health Organization, “blood is the most precious gift that anyone can give to another person – the gift of life.
