He Knows Us
by James McCaleb

I was invited to take a ride through some of the most beautiful country I know. We climbed up into the delivery and pick-up truck and started on our route. The driver had recently acquired the ownership of an established laundry business, and was filling in for one of the men who was on vacation. As we drove along he told me about the work. One statement impressed me particularly. He said that he knew no sure way to understand the new venture other than to gain first-hand knowledge of the duties.

We called at many places, mostly hotels and similar establishments. The bundles were bulky and often required two trips to deliver. Becoming a bit ashamed of my own uselessness, I climbed down from my perch and helped. I met many of the customers and began to understand a little about the work. My interest grew.

I Must Tell Jesus
I must tell
Jesus!
I must tell Jesus!
Jesus can help me,
Jesus alone!

Jesus Christ, the Son of God, the express image of God, emptied Himself of this glory, and became flesh and dwelt among us. He was tempted in every way like as we are, yet without sin. This great truth regarding our Saviour and King seems to escape us. We feel far away from the throne of God because our eyes see dimly with only a feeble faith. God made us. He knows exactly how we are fashioned, and how we function. His Son came to earth and traveled with us the same route and in the same body. How can we possibly doubt the magnificent understanding and compassion of His great heart? "Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need."

The Lord's Point of View

Tell Jesus
 Hebrews 4:15-16

Introduction

- A. In life, you will learn, it is not wise to tell everybody your personal business. Information in the hands of the wrong person can do more harm than good.
- B. In life, some have friends, confidants to confide in, which is a blessing. But, I would venture to say, you have not told your friends or confidants everything about you!
- C. In life, there is a friend, a confidant, in whom you can tell everything, "For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. 16 Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need."
